

This window is on the North Aisle at the front end of Church. It shows Jesus teaching in the temple. Have a look when we are able to be back in church.

Let us pray:

The response to my bidding 'Lord hear us', is 'Lord graciously hear us'.

Triune God, robed in majesty, Lord of heaven and earth,
we pray that you will bring justice, and equality to all peoples.

Lord, hear us. Lord, graciously hear us.

You chose us in Christ to be your people and to be the temple of your Holy Spirit; We pray that you will fill your Church in the world, and in our Parish of St. Margaret, with vision and hope.

Lord, hear us. Lord, graciously hear us.

Your Spirit enables us to cry, 'Abba! Father!' and affirms that we are fellow-heirs with Christ who pleads for us in our weakness. We pray for all who are in need or distress today. Stretch out your hand to bring comfort, wholeness, and peace to all who suffer in body, mind, or spirit. Fill us with compassion, that we may be channels of your healing love.

In a moment of quietness, we pray for those we personally know who need Christ's healing touch just now.

Lord, hear us. Lord, graciously hear us.

Conqueror of death, By the birth, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, you have opened heaven to us: In that confidence, we remember those whom we love but see no longer. Help us to live this day in the sure and certain hope of your eternal victory. As we light our own candles of remembrance today, or pray silently instead, we pray especially for the family and friends of Robert Eaves

Lord, hear us. Lord, graciously hear us.

Let us commend ourselves, and all for whom we pray, to the mercy and protection of God, as we end our prayers by saying together the Grace.

May the Grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ, and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all, evermore, AMEN.

During the course of the coming week, this will be my daily prayer. Sue mentioned it the other week and it is very applicable to every day:

God be in my head, and in my understanding:

God be in mine eyes, and in my looking:

God be in my mouth, and in my speaking:

God be in my heart, and in my thinking:

God be at mine end, and at my departing.

Every blessing,
Christine Armstrong
