Notes for the Parish Pump

Not sure if you, like me are struggling with the hot weather and humidity lately but it is certainly energy draining. Sure we all enjoy nice weather, but this has been too much for us Brits.

There has been lots of activity on the farms, combines cutting corn, balers collecting another crop of hay. Please be wary of big tractors on the lanes.

I have been reading this week from the Arthur Rank Centre an item on difficulties in life, loss of jobs, financial difficulties and bereavement. We sometimes feel life is against us with certain things, we can't change our circumstances, but we can alter how we tackle them if we sit and pray about it. It may not be the road we want but there is a road planned for us we hadn't bargained for. We are planning to have our first Communion Service this week, please follow our stewards. Rev Keith will be with us too to lead us.

Have a good weekend.

Bothy Blessings, Alan & Carolyn

The Collect:

Let your merciful ears, O Lord,
be open to the prayers of your humble servants;
and that they may obtain their petitions
make them to ask such things as shall please
you;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

AMEN
